THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF TEACHERS OF ITALIAN

The purpose of our Association is to promote and develop the study of the Italian language and literature in the United States and Canada. Active membership, dues $2.00 per year, is only open to members of the Modern Language Association who are teaching or preparing to teach Italian; Associate membership, dues $2.00 per year, is open to all other persons interested in the study and teaching of Italian; Life membership, single payment of $25.00, is open to any person eligible for membership. Persons wishing to become members or to propose members should communicate with the Secretary-Treasurer, Professor W. L. Bullock, University of Chicago, Chicago, Ill.

Italica, the Bulletin of the Association, is published quarterly, in February, May, August and November. Communications, contributions, News Notes, suggestions, advertisements, etc., should be addressed to Professor Rudolph Altrocchi, Marston Hall, Brown University, Providence, R. I.

New members and libraries wishing back numbers of the Bulletin should also communicate at once with the Editors.
